curate, craft, and create experiences and lifestyles; each collection tells a distinct design story, thereby reimagining the approach to luxury living. An ardent believer in "Being House-proud", Priyanka brings forth a unique sensibility and stunning taste in her thoughtfully curated collections that cater to all decor needs.

The brand's extensive international network has access to state-of-the-art fabrication services and channels for custom sourcing collectables to ensure top-notch quality and VO's characteristic taste in products. These include everything from vintage antiques to contemporary crafts, sourced both nationally and internationally from over eight countries. At the studio, visitors will find elegantly crafted dining tables from Vietnam, animal print pouffes from China and assorted cutlery and silverware from South Africa.

Conceptualised and curated by Priyanka Singh in 2020, Delhi-based VO Living has been recognised for its large and varied spectrum of delectable designs. With a Bachelors in Business Administration, Priyanka leverages her knack for business and skillfully integrates it with her passion for design. Her penchant for eclectic and bold pieces stems from an affinity towards an aesthetic lifestyle, coupled with a rich exposure to vivid global design

The showroom also houses appetising aromatics from Portugal, hand-woven textiles and fabrics from Madagascar, alluring art prints from Mexico, and much more. The brand regularly exhibits its products and has set up multiple one-of-a-kind decor and lifestyle exhibits at landmark venues in New Delhi, including a product display at The Lodhi and a safari-themed pop-up at the DLF-Emporio Mall.

To bridge the gap between the demands for global trends and their availability in the country, VO Living keeps its products up to date by regularly revisiting and refreshing its assortment of products. The brand takes pride in providing multiple options to its customers, enabling them to style their own space for both splendour as well as comfort. VO Living aspires to bring the best of global furniture and decor to its patrons, standing steadfast in its commitment to help them realise their dream spaces without any limitations or compromises. The store is truly sensational and continues to set trends in the field, with both individual pieces and exquisite collections.
